

District 3: Hollie Anson-Eaves, South Knox

Hollie Anson-Eaves is the IBCA District 3 Coach of the Year after directing South Knox to a 28-2 record and the Class 2A state championship. Along the way, her Spartans also won the Corydon Central Invitational, the Blue Chip Conference, the North Knox Sectional, the Charlestown Regional and the Jasper Semi-State.

In 11 seasons, Anson-Eaves has a record of 177-110 with previous sectional titles in 2017 and 2019. She will be the head coach for the South Team in the 2025 Indiana All-Star girls' Futures Game.

Anson-Eaves is a 2007 graduate of South Knox, where she was team MVP, team captain and honorable mention all-conference in basketball while also competing in softball. She went on to Brescia University in Kentucky, where she was a scorer, shooter and defensive stopper as a three-year captain and four-year player after redshirting in 2007-08.

She earned a bachelor's degree in elementary education and special education from Brescia in 2012 and now is in her 12th year as a director for Country Fun Daycare.

Anson-Eaves and her husband, Donnie, are parents to Sawyer and Ledger
