DeMotte Christian High School is seeking a passionate and experienced Head Girls Basketball Coach to lead our high school program. The ideal candidate will possess a deep knowledge of the game, a heart for discipleship, and a strong Christian faith that is evident both on and off the court. This role is an opportunity to mentor young women, foster character development, and build a Christ-centered, competitive basketball program.

Duties and Responsibilities:

Lead all aspects of the high school girls basketball program, including planning and conducting practices, developing game strategies, and overseeing assistant coaches.

Provide spiritual leadership and actively disciple athletes through prayer, devotionals, and personal example.

Foster a culture of accountability, teamwork, and excellence both on and off the court.

Collaborate with school administration and athletic director to uphold school values and program expectations.

Communicate effectively with players, parents, and school staff.

Encourage multi-sport participation and academic achievement.

Organize offseason training, summer camps, and feeder program involvement as appropriate.

Skills/Requirements:

Skills:

Strong knowledge of basketball strategy, fundamentals, and player development

Spiritual leadership and the ability to disciple student-athletes

Effective communication with players, parents, and school staff

Leadership and team-building skills to foster a positive, competitive culture

Organizational skills for planning practices, games, and off-season activities

Mentorship mindset with a heart for developing young women on and off the court

Game management and decision-making under pressure

Collaboration with assistant coaches, administration, and other sports programs

Positive role modeling in sportsmanship, discipline, and work ethic

Requirements:

Personal commitment to Jesus Christ and an active, growing faith

Agreement with DeMotte Christian Schools' Statement of Faith and mission

Coaching experience (head or assistant) preferred

Ability to pass background checks and meet school employment standards

Availability for after-school practices, evening games, and weekend events

Willingness to engage with the broader school community and feeder programs
