

District 3: Angie Hinton, Lanesville

Angie Hinton is the IBCA District 3 Coach of the Year after directing Lanesville to a 29-1 campaign that included a 51-43 victory over Marquette Catholic for a second consecutive Class A state championship. During the season, the Eagles also won the Southridge Invitational, Southern Athletic Conference, the West Washington Sectional, Crawford County Regional and New Albany Semi-State.

Hinton has posted a 145-20 record in six seasons at Lanesville with six sectional titles as well as regional, semi-state and state crowns in 2023 and 2024. She has a career mark of 326-95 in 18 seasons as a head coach.

Her career ledger includes an 8-2 mark in 1987-88 at Louisville Shawnee plus a 173-73 mark from 1990 to 2001 at New Albany. Her time at New Albany included sectional titles in 1995, 1996, 1997, 1999 and 2000, regional crowns in 1996, 1997, 1999 and 2000 plus semi-state, Class 4A state and Tournament of Champion trophies in 1999.

She has been named an assistant coach for the 2024 girls' Junior All-Stars. She previously was an assistant coach on the 1998 Indiana All-Stars. She also was a coach in the HBCA East-West All-Star Game in 1997, an HBCA District 4 Coach of the Year in 1995, 1996, 1999 and 2000, an ICGSA District 5 Coach of the Year in 1997 and the ICGSA State Coach of the Year in 1999.

A 1982 graduate of North Harrison, the former Angie Richards earned four letters each in basketball, volleyball and track & field. She matriculated to IU-Southeast, earning a degree in education in 1986.

Hinton served as the Floyd Central seventh-grade coach in 1986-87, the interim varsity girls' coach in 1987-88 at Louisville Shawnee and an eighth-grade coach at Scribner Middle School in New Albany from 1988-90.

She then coached the New Albany varsity from 1990-2001, a tenure highlighted by the 1999 undefeated Class 4A state champion at 28-0. Hinton also served seventh-grade boys basketball coach at Scribner Middle School in 2004-05, a girls' assistant coach at Charlestown in 2005-06 and a North Harrison fifth-grade boys' assistant to her son Joseph in 2006-07. She then was a girls' assistant at North Harrison from 2014-18, helping coach daughter Hallie as they were Class 3A state runners-up in 2016 and 2017, before taking over at the Lanesville program in 2018.

Hinton is in her 37th year as a math teacher, one year at Shawnee, 26 years at Scribner Middle School and now in her 10th year at North Harrison.

Hinton and her husband, Joe, a former Floyd Central boys' coach and Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame inductee – are parents to two adult children – Joseph, the current boys' varsity coach at Corydon Central, and Hallie, the current Lanesville girls' JV coach.
