

III. Characteristics and Qualities of Assistant Coaches

1. Hard Worker.
2. Be a student of the game/attend basketball clinics/join professional organizations.
3. Be a good teacher of the game/teach fundamentals.
4. Be demanding/have high expectations.
5. Motivated to do more than is expected.
6. Fulfill responsibilities in a first-class fashion.
7. Pays attention to details vs. any old way to get it done.
8. Be loyal and supportive of the basketball program and the varsity coach even when you may disagree with various decisions and/or policies.
9. Punctuality: coaches need to arrive 30 minutes before players are expected to be there.
10. Be pro-active instead of re-active: prevent problems before they develop.
11. Be a positive role model and establish positive rapport with all of our players. Players need to know how much you care before they care how much you know.
12. Be flexible: Work in harmony with fellow coaches. When disagreements develop, disagree without being disagreeable.
