

IBCA Mentoring Program

The IBCA is continuing its Mentoring Program in the 2021-22 season. The program was started in 2019-20, and the effort was upgraded in 2020-21. IBCA president Craig Teagle of Huntington North and IBCA president-elect Michael Adams of Evansville Reitz are coordinating this program.

Posted in the "About" section of the IBCA web site is a document titled, "You Got the Job, So What Happens Next? – Program Organization." This information was part of a presentation that IBCA executive director Steve Witty and IBCA assistant director Renee Turpa gave for the Women's Basketball Coaches Association during the NCAA Women's Final Four in Indianapolis a few years ago. The guidelines in this document will be helpful for any coach, experienced or inexperienced, to be organized and prepared for the challenges of being a head basketball coach.

If you can't find what you are looking for in the mentoring document and prefer to talk to a coach for ideas and advice, please contact one of the following coaches who have agreed to be Mentor Coaches. Any or all will share ideas to help you become a better coach.
